

This interpretation constitutes the clear language of the Charter section. Although it is not necessary in this instance to directly consider public policy concerns, one must remain cognizant of the fact that courts construing such provisions will err on the side of the voter's right to choose by maximizing the candidate's right to run for election.

Respectfully,

Barbara E. Herring
Director of Law

BEH:dad